Oh, no! Mr Lo!

Last Monday, Mr Lo told us to make a machine. Danny, Rose, Joe and Betty were in my group. We read some books and used our iPads to search for some information. We made the machine. We named it Polly.

Suddenly the machine picked up Mr Lo and ate him. Mr Lo was very scared. Polly was happy. Then she started to pick up the rubbish on the floor. We were all worried about Mr Lo. There was no response when we called him from Polly's mouth.

After that, we tried to find a way to save Mr Lo. In the end, we were able to save him. He was happy to see us again.
